Mentice's offering was substantially oversubscribed – trading in the share on Nasdaq First North Premier commences tomorrow

Mentice AB (publ) (“Mentice” or the “Company”), a leading supplier of high-technology solutions for simulation in the medical sector with focus on endovascular procedures, today announce the outcome of the offering in connection with the listing. The offering consists of existing shares in Mentice which are offered by selling shareholders¹ and new shares issued by the Company (the “Offering”). The Offering attracted very strong interest from both Swedish and international institutions as well as the general public in Sweden. The Offering was substantially oversubscribed.

The Offering in brief:

- As previously announced, the price per share in the Offering was SEK 49, corresponding to a total market value of the Company's shares of approximately SEK 1,183 million upon completion of the Offering.
- The Offering comprised of 8,420,751 shares, of which 6,747,281 shares were offered by Priveq Investment² and a small group of shareholders, and 1,673,470 shares were offered by the Company. The Offering will render approximately SEK 82 million in gross proceeds before deduction of costs relating to the Offering.
- In order to cover potential over-allotment in relation to the Offering, the selling shareholders have undertaken, though an over-allotment option granted to Pareto Securities, to sell up to 1,263,112 existing shares in the Company corresponding to a maximum of 15.0 percent of the Offering (the “Over-Allotment Option”).
- Provided that the Over-Allotment Option is fully exercised, the Offering is expected to amount to approximately SEK 475 million, which corresponds to approximately 40.1 percent of the total number of shares in Mentice upon completion of the Offering.
- Immediately following the completion of the Offering, and assuming that the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full, Mentice's three largest shareholders will consist of the Howell Family (36.9 percent), Bure Equity (10.1 percent) and Priveq Investment (5.0 percent).
- Trading in the shares in Mentice on Nasdaq First North Premier will commence on 18 June 2019 under the ticker “MNTC”.
- Trading is conditional until the settlement day of the Offering, which is expected to be 19 June 2019.

About Mentice AB (publ)

Mentice is a company that offers highly technological solutions for simulation to the medical sector with a focus on the fast-growing market for endovascular procedures. Mentice's simulators are used to educate, train, and improve surgeons' skills in various types of procedures and when introduced to new clinical instruments.

¹ The selling shareholders consist of Priveq Investment Fund III KB, Priveq Investment Fund III AB and a small group of shareholders.

² Priveq Investment has invested in Mentice through its two funds Priveq Investment Fund III KB (21.3 percent) and Priveq Investment Fund III AB (11.4 percent).

Mentice was founded in 1999 and has since then developed a wide product portfolio with several of the largest medical technology companies as clients. Mentice's simulators have been installed in approximately 400 hospitals and academic institutions around the world and over 1,250 simulation systems have been delivered to hospitals and medical device manufacturers.

In 2012, the Company's CEO, Göran Malmberg, received a clear mandate from the board of directors to focus on growth, which has resulted in the Company growing strongly and reaching total sales of SEK 166 million for the full year 2018. The Company's net sales growth amounted to 44 percent between 2017 and 2018. In 2017, the Company acquired the majority of the assets in Medical Simulation Corporation ("MSC"), which strengthened Mentice's presence in the US market. Mentice is developing solutions for several companies that Mentice considers to be the world's leading medical technology companies. Mentice's ultimate target is to provide solutions that improve operational efficiency and reduce harm for health systems and for health providers where the Company reaches this market either through its medical device clients, its strategic collaboration with two of the three largest global suppliers of Catheterization Laboratories ("Cath Labs") as well as Mentice direct approach to the worlds health system providers.

Matters discussed in this announcement may constitute forward-looking statements. Forward looking statements are statements that are not historical facts and may be identified by words such as "believe", "expect", "anticipate", "intends", "estimate", "will", "may", "continue", "should" and similar expressions. The forward-looking statements in this release are based upon various assumptions, many of which are based, in turn, upon further assumptions. Although the Company believes that these assumptions were reasonable when made, these assumptions are inherently subject to significant known and unknown risks, uncertainties, contingencies and other important factors which are difficult or impossible to predict and are beyond its control. Such risks, uncertainties, contingencies and other important factors could cause actual events to differ materially from the expectations expressed or implied in this release by such forward-looking statements. The information, opinions and forward-looking statements contained in this announcement speak only as at its date, and are subject to change without notice.

In connection with the offer or sale of securities referred to herein, the Pareto Securities may over-allot securities/conduct stabilization or effect transactions with a view to supporting the market price of the securities at a level higher than that which might otherwise prevail. Any stabilization action or over-allotment will be conducted by the Pareto Securities in accordance with all applicable laws and rules.

Information to distributors

Solely for the purposes of the product governance requirements contained within: (a) EU Directive 2014/65/EU on markets in financial instruments, as amended ("MiFID II"); (b) Articles 9 and 10 of Commission Delegated Directive (EU) 2017/593 supplementing MiFID II; and (c) local implementing measures (together, the "MiFID II Product Governance Requirements"), and disclaiming all and any liability, whether arising in tort, contract or otherwise, which any "manufacturer" (for the purposes of the MiFID II Product Governance Requirements) may otherwise have with respect thereto, the shares in the Company have been subject to a product approval process, which has determined that such shares are: (i) compatible with an end target market of retail investors and investors who meet the criteria of professional clients and eligible counterparties, each as defined in MiFID II; and (ii) eligible for distribution through all distribution channels as are permitted by MiFID II (the "Target Market Assessment"). Notwithstanding the Target Market Assessment, Distributors should note that: the price of the shares in the Company may decline and investors could lose all or part of their investment; the shares in the Company offer no guaranteed income and no capital protection; and an investment in the shares in the Company is compatible only with investors who do not need a guaranteed income or capital protection, who (either alone or in conjunction with an appropriate financial or other adviser) are capable of evaluating the merits and risks of such an investment and who have sufficient resources to be able to bear any losses that may result therefrom. The Target Market Assessment is without prejudice to the requirements of any contractual, legal or regulatory selling restrictions in relation to the Offering.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Target Market Assessment does not constitute: (a) an assessment of suitability or appropriateness for the purposes of MiFID II; or (b) a recommendation to any investor or group of investors to invest in, or purchase, or take any other action whatsoever with respect to the shares in the Company.

Each distributor is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the shares in the Company and determining appropriate distribution channels.
